W. W HOLDEN, Postmaster.

——The General Assembly elects a United States Senator one week from to-day.

——The sheriffs of this congressional district meet here to-day to count the vote.

——Attention is called to the advertisement of a house to rent near the post-office.

——Fifty other convicts have gone to work on the Western North Carolina Railroad.

——The official vote on the constitutional amendments has been received from all the counties except 24.

——Bleak, dreary and disagreeable was yesterday; as much of these three qualities as any one day generally contains.

——The following was omitted in the list of premiums awarded at the late fair: J. D. Hayes, Wake county, best strawberry plants, $2.

——The board of county examiners has awarded a first grade certificate to Elizabeth Smith, colored, who will teach a public school.

——The papers say that Mr. John Nichols, of this city, has presented ... Grand Master G. W. Blount, of Wilson ... a cane cut in Palestine. It is a sprig ... acacia.

——Raleigh Capter No. 10, R. A. M., will hold a regular convocation this evening at 7½ o'clock at Masonic Hall, in the Fisher building. A full and prompt attendance is desired, as the annual election of officers is to take place.

——The Baptists ministers and delegates are leaving the city rapidly. A large number of them got off yesterday and the leaving of those who yet remain, together with the exodus of the defeated candidates, will cause the city to seem rather lonely to-day, notwithstanding the Legislature.

——Fayetteville street was enlivened by a runaway, yesterday morning. A horse with a buggy dangling behind him came ripping around the corner of Morgan street and down Fayetteville, until reaching the Citizen's National Bank, where they were stopped. Whither they came or whence they intended to go, no fellow could find out.

——A dozen or more pistol shots in rapid succession in the direction of the penitentiary yesterday morning about 4 o'clock, excited a good deal of comment in that vicinity and in the sections of the city where they were heard. Nothing could be learned, yesterday, concerning the cause of the shooting.

——The western bound train on the North Carolina Railroad was about three hours behind time, yesterday. The delay was caused by the ditching of a train on the Atlanta & Richmond Air Line Railroad, Sunday night, and the fact that the North Carolina train waited for it at Charlotte yesterday morning.

——A wild report that Florida had been counted for Tilden by 800 majority, was current on the streets last evening. It turned out not to be true, but then it was all right to tell it. Hayes was elected Sunday, and yesterday was Tilden's day in order. This is Hayes's day again, and to-morrow is Tilden's. So it goes. Are we a nation?

Sheriffs Settling.

James P. Cherry, sheriff of Clay county, settled the tax of the county yesterday with the State Treasurer. He paid into the treasury $534.85 divided as follows: public tax $285 87; special taxes, $248.98.

Tilden and Vance Club.

The club met last evening at the usual hour, W. H. Bledsoe, President, in the chair, who announced that the first thing in order was the subject of Gov. Vance's visit to Raleigh.

Sherwood Haywood moved that the whole matter be left with the committee appointed at a previous meeting, which was unanimously carried.

F. H. Heartt offered the following resolutions, after which the club adjourned to meet Wednesday night next:

WHEREAS An independent press is the best conservator of constitutional liberty, in its silent but powerful operation, the creator of a healthy and moral public opinion, a ladder whereby merit climbs to a just reward, a rock upon which wrong, imposture and corruption are broken, and Personal.

Gen. M. W. Ransom and Gen. T. L. Clingman were among the prominent arrivals by last evening's trains.

Nearly if not quite all the members of the Legislature who were absent from their seats yesterday, arrived last evening. Among these were: Messrs. Wilson, of Burke; Nicholson, Gaither and Sharpe, of Iredell; Finger and Yount, of Catawba; McCubbins, of Rowan; York, of Wilkes; Mr. Sams, of Buncombe; Fox, of Randolph; Bryson, of Swain and Wilson, of Transylvania; Ardrey, of Mecklenburg, and a number of others, doubtless, whose names we have overlooked.

He's Coming in Style.

Raleigh is likely to g'eam with bayonets on the first day of January, as it is sure to be resplendent with beauty and alive with the solid worth of the State. As to the military, the Star has just seen a dispatch from Governor Vance to Capt. M. P. Taylor, of the Wilmington Light Infantry, accepting the tender of that company to form, in connection with the Hornet's Nest Riflemen, of Charlotte, his escort from that city to Raleigh on the occasion of his approaching inauguration as Governor of North Carolina. The strength of the Light Infantry on that occasion will embrace about eighty men, rank and file.

The Youngest

Member of the Legislature this session is Mr. Ervin Harris, the commoner from Cabarrus. He is just a little the rise of 23 years, and looks scarcely so old. He is a son of the late William Shakspeare Harris, of Cabarrus—bearing a name ancient and honorable in the history of that section of North Carolina. Mr. Harris comes of a family noted for its native intellect and mental culture, and we doubt not that in the legislative halls of the State or elsewhere he will fully sustain the expectations of his constituency and friends.

An Escaped Criminal Arrested.

Information has been received at the executive department, of the arrest and safe delivery to the sheriff of Alleghany county, of Milton Stamper, who was convicted some time last year of the murder of Wm. Waggoner, of that county, and who escaped last January from Statesville jail, whither he had been carried for safe keeping. On the 10th of August last Governor Brogden offered a reward of $300 for the apprehension of the criminal, and information has just been received of his arrest in Grayson county, Va., by Abner Jones, of that State and county, and his confinement in Alleghany jail. He is a noted desperado.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

SESSION OF 1876--'77.

SENATE.

FIRST DAY.

MONDAY, Nov. 20th, 1876.

The Senate was called to order at 12 M., by Johnstone Jones, clerk of the previous Senate.

The roll was called and the following Senators presented their certificates of election and were sworn in: Messrs. Coke, of Chowan, Mercer, of Currituck, Latham, of Washington, Cahoon, of Beaufort, Mebane (colored) of Bertie, Stickney, of Pitt, Boddie, of Nash, Williams, of Wilson, Green, of Craven, Askew, of Jones, Stanford, of Duplin, Dortch, of Wayne, Dunn, of Lenoir, Moore, (colored) of New Hanover, Bennett, of Brunswick, Stewart, of Sampson Short, of Columbus, Troy, of Cumberland, Waddell, of Johnston, Wynne, of Wake, Thorne, of Warren, Graham, of Orange, Cunningham, of Person, Albright, of Chatham, Mebane, of Rockingham, Holt, of Alamance, Scales, of Guilford, Robins, of Randolph, Dockery, of Richmond, Liles, of Anson, Heilig, of Cabarrus, Moore, of Mecklenburg, Crawford, of Rowan, Roberts, of Davidson, Wilson, of Forsythe, Marler, of Yadkin, Bingham, of Watauga, Folk, of Caldwell, Young, of Yancey, Sandifer, of Gaston, Justice, of Rutherford, Johnston, of Buncombe, Ferguson, of Haywood, Robinson, of Macon.

A quorum being present, the election of the presiding officer was announced as next in order. Messrs. Stanford, of Duplin and Moore, of Mecklenburg, were appointed tellers.

Senator Dortch, of Wayne, nominated for the presidency of the Senate, Hon. J. L. Robinson, of Macon.

Senator Dockery, of Richmond, nominated Hon. George Green, of Craven.

A vote was taken and resulted:—Mr. Robinson, 35; Mr. Green, 6; Mr. Graham, of Orange, 1. The following is the ballot:

For Mr. Robinson: Messrs. Albright, Askew, Bennett, Bingham, Boddie, Coke, Cunningham, Crawford, Dortch, Folk, Ferguson, Graham, Heilig, Holt, Johnston, Justice, Latham, Liles, Marler, Mebane, of Rockingham, Mercer, Moore, of Mecklenburg, Moore, of New Hanover, Robins, Roberts, Sandifer, Short, Standford, Stewart, Stickney, Troy, Waddell, Williams, Wilson, Young. 35.

For Mr. Green: Messrs. Bennett, Boddie, Dockery, Green, Mebane, of Rockingham, Moore, of Mecklenburg, Robins, Scales, Stickney. 9.

Upon taking the chair, Mr. Robinson said:

"Gentlemen—This evidence of your confidence and partiality, I assure you is appreciated by me, and will, I trust, enkindle in my bosom a desire to serve the people of my State with more fidelity and zeal than I have yet done during my brief public career, and to make you, if not an able, at least an honest and impartial presiding officer.

"Fresh from the people, we will be expected to labor for their interests, and to promote, by judicious legislation, the welfare of all our citizens. Occupying the proud and responsible positions of representatives of North Carolina, let us remember that for two generations her most trusted and honored sons have occupied these seats and labored for her prosperity and honor. We will have done well for our State if we can restore our former credit and reputation; and with the changes in our organic system, so recently ratified by a large majority of our people, if we can place our citizens again on the highway to prosperity, it will be a proud day in the not far off future, when we can point to a people growing in material wealth, and each year growing greater and greater in the ennobling qualities that adorn a people, who cultivate the civilizing influences of peace and virtue.

"Thanking you, gentlemen, for this distinguished compliment, I announce the Senate ready to proceed in its organization."

The election of the secretary of the Senate was next in order.

Senator Troy, of Cumberland, nominated R. M. Furman, of Buncombe. In bringing forward the name of Mr. Furman, Senator Troy said:

"Mr. President—I arise to place in nomination for the position of principal clerk of the Senate, an old and venerable gentleman, well known to the people of North Carolina; one who rendered the State invaluable service in the late political campaign; a gentleman eminently qualified in every respect to perform the duties of clerk and who, I know, will do so to the satisfaction of the Senate and with credit to himself. He is full of life and activity, and though his head is silvered with age his gray locks will only lend dignity to the position he will so gracefully fill. I mention the name of Robt. M. Furman, of the Asheville Citizen, or citizen of Asheville; I scarcely know which."

Senator Dunn, of Lenoir, nominated I. W. King, of New Hanover.

The result of the ballot was announced as follows: Mr. Furman, 37; Mr. King, 7.

The Senate then proceeded to the election of an assistant or reading clerk.

Senator Cunningham, of Person, presented the name of Peter M. Wilson, of Warren.

Upon motion of Senator Dockery, of Richmond, Senator Mabson, col., was allowed to come forward and qualify.

Senator Dockery nominated Oscar J. Spears, of Harnett, for reading clerk of the Senate.

The ballot resulted: Mr. Wilson, 36; Mr. Spears, 7.

Mr. Wilson was declared elected, and he and Mr. Furman were qualified.

Senator Troy, of Cumberland, offered a resolution for the appointment of a committee of three on rules for the body: Adopted.

The Senate then, on motion of Senator Stanford, of Duplin, adjourned until to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

THE NEWS, Raleigh, N. C.

Our subscribers will greatly oblige us by giving prompt information of any delay in receiving their papers.

THE re-election of Col. John D. Cameron to the principal clerkship of the House, on yesterday, was a well-merited tribute to a most zealous and faithful officer and devoted patriot.

THE counting of the votes in Louisiana began in New Orleans yesterday; in the presence of a Democratic and a Republican committee. So we shall hear something definite from that quarter in a few days.

IN the election of Mr. Robert M. Furman for Secretary, the Senate made choice of a gentleman who will fill the office with entire acceptability. Besides they have honored one who merits honor at the hands of the party which he has served so faithfully ever since its organization.

THE people of Warren county will rejoice at the election of Charles Price to the speakership of the House. He left there a poor, but brave and talented boy, just after the close of the war. He went west. He returns now the presiding officer of the legislative body which is destined to bring relief to the down-trodden people of his eastern home.

MR. JOHN B. HUSSEY, of Iredell, was on yesterday chosen Reading Clerk of the House. Mr. Hussey did splendid service in the recent campaign with his paper, the Statesville Landmark. It had few equals and no superior as a campaign journal, whether we consider the zeal, the skill, or the talent displayed in its editorial conduct.

MR. PETER M. WILSON, of Warren, the newly-elected Reading Clerk of the Senate, was prominently mentioned in the Democratic State Convention last June, in connection with the nomination for Superintendent of Public Instruction. Mr. Wilson ranks with the most energetic and zealous young Democrats of the State, and deserved the honor which has been conferred upon him.

THE returning board in Florida delays the canvass of the votes. The law allows them thirty days in which to perform this duty. We may not expect a decision, therefore, until towards the close of this limited period. The delay is not necessary, although allowable; and it is not strange that suspicion of foul play is directed against the board. Hope is entertained that the Radical manipulators in Tallahassee will not have the courage to "count in" Hayes.

ONE of the most signal triumphs of the election of the 7th was the success of the Democrats in the 13th Senatorial district composed of Bladen and Brunswick counties. In 1874, Mr. Cashwell, Republican, carried the district by 110 majority, and every time since the war the Republicans have been triumphant. But this year Mr. Bennett, one of the truest Democrats of the State, secured his election by 81 majority. This gives the 13th district an able and thorough-going representative.

IMMEDIATE action is required from the Legislature in regard to the comparison of the polls for members of Congress. The act of 1871-'72, Battle's Revisal chapter 22, section 4, requires the sheriff or other returning officers of the counties of each Congressional District to meet on the third Thursday in August, at certain places designated in the statute. The time of election having been changed this year from August to November, the act above referred to must be repealed and some other time fixed for the comparison of the polls.

PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE.

The selection of Hon. James L. Robinson, of Macon, for President of the Senate, is a richly deserved compliment to one of the ablest, most popular, and most deserving among the young and rising statesmen of North Carolina.

Mr. Robinson first entered public life in 1868 as a member of the House of Representatives. He was one of the brave few who then withstood the overwhelming majority of the Radicals, their corruption, their insolence, and their rage.

He was elected to the Legislature in 1870, and again in 1872, when he was chosen Speaker. In 1874, he came for the four h time to the House of Representatives, and was re-elected to the Speaker-ship.

Mr. Robinson is an able, impartial and thoroughly dignified presiding officer; and will no doubt add to his already well established reputation as a speaker.

The election of Mr. Robinson is a just and well-merited tribute to a section of the State which has been the trusty of the true in its allegiance to the Democratic party, and which rolled up the most magnificent majorities for the Democratic ticket in the election of the 7th.

Mr. Robinson will occupy the position only temporarily, as Lieut. Governor Jarvis will ex-officio be President of the Senate after the 1st of January 1877, when his term of office begins.

Mr. Jarvis could not have a more worthy predecessor in the Chair of the Senate than the distinguished gentleman whom the Senate yesterday placed in that exalted position.

SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE.

After a very spirited contest yesterday, Hon. Charles Price, of Davie, was chosen Speaker of the House of Representatives. Mr. Price hardly needs an introduction to the people of North Carolina. Although young in years, being but thirty years of age, he has already achieved an enviable reputation as a true and unflinching patriot and a statesman of distinguished ability.

Mr Price was a gallant soldier, serving as senior Captain of his regiment during the war. After the war he located in Raleigh, where he remained until he began the study of the law under Chief Justice Pearson. After completing his course, he settled in St. Louis; but love of his mother State brought him back after a year's absence, and he [illegible] lished himself in the practice of the law in Davie [illegible].

He soon [illegible] position at [illegible] ents, his p[illegible] ners[illegible] the people [illegible] chosen Sena[illegible] posed of Rov[illegible] served during t[illegible] as a leading me[illegible] of th[illegible] Committee. Last year he was e[illegible] to the Constitutional Convention, and there gained an enviable reputation for those shining qualities which on yesterday were recognized in so signal a manner by the representatives of the whole people.

Mr. Price possesses all the requisites for a good speaker—parliamentary knowledge, quickness of perception, decision of character, courtesy, dignity and fairness of disposition; and we are very sure that he will prove a most capable successor to his thrice-honored predecessor, Hon. James L. Robinson.

The other gentlemen brought forward for this position were entirely worthy of the honor. There were Mr. Carter, of Hyde, one of the truest of the true hearted men of eastern North Carolina; Mr. Moring, of Chatham, one of the greatest favorites of the middle country; and Mr. Henderson, of Rowan, a gentleman who stands among the first for ability, and devotion to North Carolina. There was the cultured and elegant McGehee, of Person; the gallant and courtly General Roberts, of Gates; and the noble Edward Ransom, who saved North Carolina by his vote in 1875.

And there was Mr. Richardson, of Columbus, a trusted leader of the Cape Fear region; the gifted and popular H. A. Gudger, of Madison; and last, but not least, the eloquent and brilliant exponent of the Democratic sentiment of the middle section—Col. John N. Staples, of Guilford.

PERSONAL.

A Republican in Louisville lost $100 by betting that "Wheeler and Wilson" would be elected.

Gen. W. H. F. Lee, second son of General R. E. Lee, is elected to the State Senate of Virginia.

Cardinal McCloskey has been confined to the archiepiscopal mansion for several days past by illness. His ailment is Bright's disease.

Howard Carroll, the correspondent of the New York Times, is still busily engaged in sending his astounding dispatches from Florida. Carroll evidently gets his information altogether from carpet-bag sources.

John Walter M. P., and proprietor of the London Times, sailed for home Wednesday in the Bothnia, after a visit of several weeks in this country. A number friends were on board to bid him good-bye, among them Mr. G. W. Childs at whose house in Philadelphia Mr. Walter spent some days.

POLITICAL NOTES.

It is one of the most significant features of the Presidential election controversy that the only three States about whose vote there is any conflict of opinion should be those in which the Republicans have entrenched themselves in power by the use of that novel piece of partisan machinery, a returning board.

The Cincinnati Enquirer reports that ex-Gov. Noyes gave to a Democratic friend the following succinct reason for believing that Hayes would be elected: "Your damned rascals are out and our damned rascals are in" This is neither complimentary to Govs. Chamberlain, Kellogg and Stearns, nor to the Republican party.

Judge Cushing for a long time a professor in the law-school of Harvard University and a standard authority, says in his treatise on the law of elections, "If an election is made of a person who is ineligible, that is incapable of being elected, the election of such person is absolutely void, even though he is voted for at the same time with others who are eligible, and who are accordingly elected; and this is equally true whether the disability is known to the electors or not; whether a majority of all the votes, or a plurality only is necessary to the election, and whether the votes are given orally or by ballot."

NORTH CAROLINA.

The thrifty little village of Catawba can now boast of three doctors.

In Beaver Dam township, Watauga county, Hayes did not get a single vote.

Some of the colored women of Charlotte had tickets printed in advance for a "Settle Ball." That shin-dig did not come off.

The annual session of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will meet in Greensboro on the 29th inst.

James Badget of Eldora township, Rowan county, dropped dead of heart-disease at the polls election day. He was sixty-five years old, and leaves a large family.

Wilmington has formed an organization to be known as the Fire Guards. Their purpose is to keep guard over the articles removed from burning buildings and see that nothing is stolen.

A tramp stepped into the office of the Wilmington Star last Saturday night, and while the attention of the only knight of the quill who was present was attracted to another part of the room, harnessed a hat [illegible] at and left. The stolen arti[illegible] ently re[illegible].

The Wilmi[illegible] on good authority that th[illegible] In Onslow county, who has arrived at the advanced age of 85 years, who never had a case in Court, was never a witness or a juror, never registered and never voted, until the last election, when he not only registered, but cast his maiden vote for Tilden, Vance and Reform.

The Citizen says that a difficulty occurred in Asheville last Tuesday between District Attorney Lusk and Harvey Mull, from Transylvania, charged with illicit distilling. Mull drew a knife and cut at Mr. Lusk as the latter was walking off, but fortunately no damage was inflicted. Mull was lodged in jail.

The Wilmington Star learns from a gentleman, who left Lumberton last Friday morning, that Charles Ellis, a colored man in the employ of Messrs. Melke Jones of that place and who was in the habit of sleeping in the store for the protection of the same, remained out later than usual on Thursday night last, and on returning was shot and killed by some parties who, it is supposod, were in the act of robbing the store.

A correspondent of the Wilmington Star, speaking of the recent fire at Magnolia, says the estimated losses, exclusive of several lots of furniture, wearing apparel, fences, and small outhouses, is $48,500 and the total insurance $15,550. Some of the citizens have lost every thing, even to the clothing they wore the day before the fire, barely escaping with their lives. Mr. D. D. Southerland, who was sleeping over the store of Messrs. K. & J. A. Bryant, in which building the fire originated, was quite severely burnt.

NORTHERN OPINION.

What the Democrats Say.

[Syracuse (N. Y.) Courier.]

One thing is certain. The Louisiana game of usurpation can never be played on the American people. A State may be forced to submit to it; the nation never. No man yet ever sat in the Presidential chair who had not been honestly and fairly chosen by the people thereto. And it is safe to say that until we reach the end of Republican government, no man ever will.

[Harrisburg (Pa.) Patriot.

Mr. Tilden will be inaugurated President of the United States, peaceably if no fraud be attempted, forcibly if the people are compelled to put down ballot-box stuffers and return-forgers by the strong hand. For the present we counsel calmness and moderation. But when the time comes, if it should come, when the rights of the people must be vindicated at any cost, the honest and patriotic men of the country must be ready to do their duty.

[Cleavelland (Ohio) Plain-Dealer.]

The people will stand by the man who fairly carried the States now in doubt. In the meanwhile we caution all our Democratic friends to keep cool, talk calmly, and be patient, for we believe there is no question about the ultimate result—that Samuel J. Tilden is fairly, honestly, and constitutionally elected President of the United States. The infamous Kellogg, the figure head of all villiany in the South, the manipulator of ballot boxes, will not dare, in the face of public sentiment of the country, to endeavor to carry out his schemes of disfranchising thousands of citizens of Louisiana. The respectable Republicans of the country will not justify any such proceedings.

What the Republicans Say.

[Norwich (N. Y.) Bulletin.]

We had rather see Tilden President than Hayes counted in by fraud; and what is more, we believe Hayes would too. If he be the man we have taken him to be while giving him our support, he will not stoop to conquer. Rather than sanction any unworthy or dishonest proceeding, we believe he will refuse to qualify.

[Brooklyn Eagle]

Suppose the conspiracy to steal the Presidency for Mr. Hayes should be carried out so far as the fraudulent calculation of the electoral votes of the three States is concerned. That would only be the signal for the present Congress in December to devise remedies which would head off the conspiracy and any one may be very sure that the American people will find or make a way to defeat and larceny of their highest offices.

[Rochester Democrat and Chronicle]

Some of the opposition papers have been imputing mean motives to Gov. Kellogg, but Gov. Kellogg must not and will not permit Gov. Hayes to be counted in or Gov. Tilden to be counted out. We want justice. By it we are willing to stand or fall. Let honest men of both parties be sent to the States where frauds are suspected, and let us as by jury settle this matter so as to do even and exact justice to all.

[Philadelphia Press.]

Do not let us again arouse the sleeping lion of revolt in our midst. Do not let the great North be stirred to arms by the violence of politicians of either section. Heaven knows we need no more war. But in the spirit of simple frankness, and in view of the plain facts we have rehearsed, and in the face of the still unforgotten tragedy of the rebellion, we invoke both sides to peace, to compromise, to mutual forbearance, and to the cultivation of that love of country which ought never to be extinguished.

Senator Merrimon's Opinion.

A great deal of attention is being directed to the twenty-second joint rule just now, and any opinion that throws light upon it is eagerly sought. We are glad to be able to give one of our own able U. S. Senator's view of the matter, as that rule may have considerable influence in determining the electoral vote.—Judge Merrimon is a member of the Senate Committee on Rules, and what he says is entitled to high consideration. A correspondent of the Boston Herald writes from Raleigh of the date of Nov. 10th, as follows:

"In an interview just held with United States Senator Merrimon, a member of the Senate Committee on Rules, he states that the twenty-second joint rule, providing that the electoral vote of any State shall be set aside upon the objection of either House, although rescinded on the part of the Senate, may yet be insisted upon by some as continuing in force since the House of Representatives, by whose concurrence this rule was originally adopted, did not join in its abrogation. The Republican Senators may insist upon the recognition of the twenty-second rule as still operative, and proceed to object to receiving the vote of Louisiana. The Democratic House would probably thereupon object to the reception of Ohio. The Senate then objects to North Carolina, which the House resents by objecting to Pennsylvania. This process may go on until the electoral vote of every State is thrown out, thus making last Tuesday's election a complete nullity. The election of a President could not then, as might be supposed, go to the House, since there would be no two highest candidates to choose from. A new election of President and Vice President must then be ordered, in pursuance of sections 147, 148 and 149 of title 2, chapter 1, Revised Statutes of the United States. An important question arises here: Who shall occupy the Presidential office in the interior? Since the vacancy supposed does not come under the four cases of removal, death, resignation or inability, provided for by section 146 of the above named chapter which authorizes the President of the Senate to act as President, it is manifested a casus omissus. If the rule be regarded as repealed, the counting of the vote of the electoral college will be regulated solely by the provisions of section three of article two of the Constitution of the United States, which in the absence of any statute of Congress made in pursuance of it, is subject to varying and conflicting interpretations which will readily suggest themselves.

BRIGHAM'S SUCCESSOR.

The Chosen Son of Brigham Young--A Latter-Day Saint with Worldly Tendencies.

[San Francisco Chronicle]

Brigham Young has finally defined his policy for the future of the Mormon Church in selecting for his first counsellor the youngest son of his first family, John W. Young. This now-to-be-prominent young man is well known in this city, especially among capitalists. In personal appearance he is very attractive to the fair sex, and in his manner and habits he would pass anywhere for a "man of the world" who was pretty well satisfied with this terrestrial globe and in no hurry whatever to get off to the upper regions. Up to the building of the Pacific railroad "Young Johnny," as he was familiarly called, was an excellent Mormon, and gave early evidence of being a first-class patriarch. He had hardly got through his teens when his eyes fell kindly upon a young saintess, and the baked meats of the marriage feast had hardly cooled before he fell desperately in love with another younger saintess, and married her also. The prophet thought Johnny should see a little more of the world before proceeding further in that line, and he was consequently sent to England on a tour of pleasure, in company with his brother, "Briggy Junior." These two scions of Mormon royalty travelled all over Europe, spending lavishly the funds of the poor, confiding saints. On Johnny's return to the United States his first wife pressed upon him to call upon her relatives in Philadelphia, and to gratify her wishes the young man hastened to the City of Brotherly Love, and before he was twenty-fore hours acquainted with his first wife's family her fell desperately in love with he cousin, who had only been recently married, but who was not happily mated. She accepted the invitation to visit Utah, the plains were soon travelled over, the cousin became converted, and in a few weeks after she was "Mrs. Johnny No. 3." Time passed rapidly, and No. 3 gains the ascendancy over the young man's heart. The first wife gains a divorce, and the second is put aside with "an allowance." No. 3 is the lady who came frequently to San Francisco, and was received in "our best society" as Mrs. Young. With her the youngest son of the prophet drank deeply of the ways of the world, and was seriously captivated by its fashions. For several years he has lived so little in Utah—preferring San Francisco and New York to the City of Saints—that he has been regarded as an apostate from the faith, and thus, unexpectedly to everybody, he returned to Utah, and the prophet, in utter disregard of the sentiments of the Mormon people, places him next to his throne, and makes him by that act the next prophet of the Mormon Church. But it is probably expecting too much to look for any commotion among the Mormons over this sudden conversion of a splendid scapegrace into a full fledged prophet, seer, and revelator.

"O wearisome condition of humanity!"

How many wretched homes in our land! How many heart-broken invalids! Life with many signifies a mere onerous existence. All are subject to disease, but when health is removed the hope is nearly gone out. Sickness is usually incurred through exposure or carelessness. Especially is this true with those diseases peculiar to woman. Through her own imprudence and folly she is made to drag out a miserable existence—a source of annoyance and anxiety to her friends, and any thing but a comfort and pleasure to herself. Exposure to the cold at times when she should be most prudent, and overtaxing her body with laborious employment, are both fruitful causes of many of the maladies from which she suffers. Gradually the bloom leaves her checks, her lips grow ashy white, her vivacity departs, she continually experiences a feeling of weariness and general languor, and altogether presents a ghostly appearance. What does she need? Should she take some stimulating drug, which will for the time make her "feel better," or does her entire system demand reparation? She requires something which not only will restore to health the diseased organs, but will tone and invigorate the system. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will do this. It imparts strength to the diseased parts, brings back the glow of health, and restores comfort where previously there was only suffering.

Every invalid lady should send for "The Peoples Common Sense Medical Adviser," in which over fifty pages are devoted to the consideration of those diseases peculiar to Women. It will be sent, post paid, to any address, for $1.50. Address, R. V. Pierce, M. D., World's Dispensary, Buffalo, N. Y. Agents wanted to sell this valuable work.

SUNDAY DISPATCHES.

The Louisiana Returning Board.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 19.—Returning Board have received returns from 35 of the 71 parishes and will commence a canvass Monday. Counsel will be permitted to inspect the returns when received to see they had not been tampered with. Ex-Gov. E. F. Noyes, of Ohio; General Law Wallace, of Indiana, and Hon. John A. Kasson, of Iowa, left Saturday by rail for Florida. Visiting Democrats appointed the following to remain here and be present to witness the counting of votes by the Returning Board: John M. Palmer, of Illinois; Lyman Trumbull, of Illinois; Wm. Bigler, of Pennsylvania; Gov. B. Smith, of Wisconsin; P. H. Watson, of Ohio. General Sherman, in behalf of the Republicans accepted an invitation of the Board, but the five persons to act have not been designated.

NOON DISPATCHES

FOREIGN.

Loss of Life by the Cyclone—The Egypt Trouble—The Russian Army—Retirement of Serano—Papers on the Situation—The Cartridge Sensation Exploded.

LONDON, Nov. 20.—Official returns at Calcutta give the loss of life by the cyclone at 215,000.

The Calcutta Pioneer says that the Indian government is preparing a strong contingent for Egypt in case of war.

The Daily News' Vienna correspondent says positively that neither Germany nor Austria would oppose Russia's entrance into Roumania. The strength of the Russian army now in process of mobilization is a quarter of a million. All ships of the Russian Black Sea Navigation Company have been impressed.

The Sunday papers to-day generally take a more hopeful view of the situation. The Times says this morning: "Everything opens so fairly that we are perhaps led to be too sanguine in holding that peace is assured. It is hard to believe that when ten persons, all representing powers deeply interested in keeping peace, meet in council they will not maintain peace unbroken.

Careful official contradictions are published this morning of recent reports of the activity at Woolwich arsenal, when the Post, on Saturday, stated an order had been received for forty millions of cartridges and forty thousand ammunition boxes in which to pack the cartridges for transportation. The increasing demand for cartridges is solely in consequence of the adoption of Martin's Henry Rifle in the Indian army.

MADRID, Nov. 20.—The Imparsial says that Marshal Serano has determined to retire to private life.

TROOPS MASSING.

A Thin Story—Police Duty in the District of Columbia—Grant Commencing His Game.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Several companies of soldiers have arrived here and others are coming. This is made the basis for sensational paragraphs about massing the army in the District. There are assurances that these troops are merely en route, and their movements have no strategetic or political significance. It is likely, however, as the District has no local government, that the army will police the ten miles square until after the 4th of March.

Pinchback on the Returning Board.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 20.—The Times' New Orleans dispatch says: "It will be remembered that the Returning Board was created by the same Legislature that elected Pinchback to the United States Senate. He was refused his seat on the ground that that Legislature was not properly and legally organized. Now he claims that if the Returning Board is recognized as a legal body he should be seated."

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

FOREIGN.

Special Ambassador—The Rothschilds Deny—Maine Disasters.

LONDON, Nov. 20.—The Marquis of Salisbury, special ambassador to act at the coming conference, left for Constantinople with his family. He will stop at Paris, Berlin and Vienna, presumably for consultation with the respective foreign ministers.

The Pall Mall Gazette publishes a letter from the Rothschilds completely denying the story published in the Cologne Gazette of Saturday, that they have promised to advance Russia money.

The mail steamer Windsor Castle, between Great Britain and Cape Good Hope, has been lost. The crew and passengers were saved. The British gun boat Lapwing is reported lost in a gale off Chafoo.

THE LOUISIANA RETURNING BOARD.

Arrangements for the Count.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 20.—There are three tables in a circle in the Senate Chamber, one for the Returning Board and one for each committee. The corridors are barricaded and guarded by assitant sergeants-at-arms. The committee entered about noon. The Republicans are: Garfield, Tuttle, Sherman, Hale and Stoughton. The Democrats as before reported. Each committee has a phonographer to report the proceedings. The committee will be present during the executive session of the board. The sessions will be daily from 10 A. M. to 4 P. M.

WASHINGTON.

Marshal O'Neil—The Movement of Troops—An Ignorant Secretary of War.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The commission of Weden O'Neil, as marshal for Kentucky, has been signed.

The movement of troops, so far as regards a concentration here, has no political significance.

Three members of the cabinet, including the Secretary of War had no knowledge that they were coming.

Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—For the South Atlantic States cool westerly, backing to warmer, southwest winds; stationary or higher pressure, and clear weather will prevail.
